

A URJ sleep-away camp experience is a unique, fun way to help your son or daughter cultivate an independent sense of self, along with a proud Jewish identity.

The Reform Movement Camps offer your child an invaluable opportunity to discover the joys of living Judaism as part of a warm, spirited, and diverse community. In a safe, scenic, natural environment, surrounded by nurturing and empowering role models, he or she will master a variety of new skills, and grow in confidence and maturity.

Join members of our Pittsburgh Area Reform Congregations for a Shabbat afternoon of

URJ Summer Camp in The Middle of The Winter

Saturday, January 24, 3:30 PM – 6:00 PM

Temple Sinai, 5505 Forbes Avenue, Pittsburgh

We will be joined by URJ Camp Harlam Staff as we share in:

- Team Building Activities
- Song Session
- Camp Torah Activities
- Camp Comfort Food

We will watch camp videos, ask questions about camp, talk about scholarships and consider how your child can join thousands of Reform Jewish children at URJ Camps.

*This is a perfect family activity for families with children in 1st-6th Grades.
Whether you are considering camp for this summer, next summer or beyond, we want you to taste camp now... in the middle of the winter.*

RSVP to your own Temple's Education Staff by January 19.

Many of our Pittsburgh area Reform Families already go to:
URJ Camp Harlam, Kunkeltown, Pennsylvania
URJ Myron S. Goldman Union Camp-Institute (GUCI), Zionsville, Indiana
URJ Olin-Sang-Ruby Union Institute (OSRUI), Oconomowoc, Wisconsin
URJ Camp George, Parry Sound, Ontario